

St Bernadette's Class: Miss Carter

St Peter's Class: Mr Bonnar

Key Dates

- Computing Week:
- Parents' evening- 24th November

Next Week's Curriculum:

ENGLISH: we will be continuing to do work based on our book, One Small Blue Bead.

Reading focus: Reading comprehension

Writing focus: to write and describe emotion

Grammar focus: conjunctions for reasons

Spelling focus: prefixes, in, dis and mis.

MATHS: We will be learning about pictograms and how to interpret data from them.

P.E TOPIC: Invasion games

Next term we will be learning rules, skills and strategies to play tag rugby.

When the weather is not suitable we will be following our GETSET4PE Yoga programme. The children really enjoyed it. Ask them to teach you how to do it.

R.E TOPIC: Judaism

We will continue learning about Judaism, looking at the synagogue and important symbols for Jewish people.

HISTORY: Who first lived in Britain?

We will be learning more about how people lived in the stone age.

FRENCH:

The children will practise greetings and simple phrases using a story.

READING: Hopefully, you are all able to log into Bug Club now. We have allocated a range of books for children to read for pleasure.

This week we would like the children to finish Weird Weather and answer the 'bug' questions.

Please remember to keep adding to Reading record books, it can be any book they read not just books from school.

SPELLING: You will find this week's spellings below and five year 2 common exception words. Please practise these with your child. They may like to use them in sentences to help them to learn the spellings. They may use their pink books for this.

Week 9

Maths: we have attached a maths task to the homework sheet for children to complete. This week the children will be recapping column addition and column subtraction.

Half-term project: using our class book, Ug- Boy Genius of the Stone age - as inspiration, we would like the children to create their own short story about a child living in the stone age. This could be in a comic style or paragraphs.

Week 3: This week think about your character feels.

What words could you use to describe their emotions?

How do they show how they feel?
