Dear Parents,

As you are aware Mrs Fewtrell continues to be on sick leave and, unfortunately, we are not yet able to confirm a return date. Over the autumn term we have been able to place 2 experienced teachers in St Anne's class in order to give as much continuity as possible and in order to cover this absence. That said, Mrs Hughes will leave at the end of this term as she is relocating out of London.

With that in mind I am able to confirm that, from the start of the spring term 2023, Mrs Murza will take responsibility for the class. The benefits of this are that Mrs Murza has worked in the school for many years, knows and has taught St Anne's children already and is an experienced and excellent teacher.

I know you will continue to support Mrs Murza over the next few terms and I thank you for your patience and understanding.

Our in-coming head teacher, Mr Skehan, is aware of the change of teacher in St Anne's class and will also be supporting Mrs Murza as she takes on this important role.

Yours sincerely,

Mr N Campbell
