

Dear Ladybirds' parents

I am very touched and overwhelmed by your thoughtful gift and kind thoughts that I received today. It has been extremely tough losing my father but it helps knowing that my family and I are in your thoughts and prayers. My father loved gardening and so it is very fitting that you have given me a tree. I will plant it, tend it with great care and enjoy the warm memories that it brings.

Best wishes

Mrs Clarke