Dear Butterflies Parents / Carers

I am writing to update you on the upcoming staffing change in Butterflies class, once Mrs Damacus goes on maternity leave.

Currently Mrs Damacus expects to work into the first week of May, although I'm sure you will appreciate that this could change. We are very close to confirming the teaching arrangements for the class once she leaves – I expect to be able to do this immediately after the class returns from Easter break.

Thank you for your understanding – staff will do everything possible to ensure the highest level of continuity for these pupils going forward.

Kind regards,

Diarmuid Skehan
